Recruitment

- Recruitment, or recruiting, is defined as any action initiated by a "Team Official" (coach, assistant coach, team manager, trainer, or person representing a team or Club) who seeks to enlist the services of a player.
- Illegal recruitment is defined as the employment of any prohibited practice by a Team Official. These prohibited practices include:
  - Offering any inducement of material or monetary value to a player or player's family.
  - Initiating contact with any player currently registered and rostered with another GCSA team except during the annual tryout "free agency" period (as defined in the CLR&R, Section B., 1., g.).
  - Allowing or promoting the use of a competitive Club logo or name by teams other than properly registered competitive Club teams.
  - Interference with a competitive player once the player has signed a USYSA registration form and paid the fee to register with a team or club for the next seasonal year.
- Illegal recruitment does not include the following permitted practices:
  - Waiver of Club/Team fees and expenses upon proof of financial hardship.
  - Contact with a player during the annual tryout "free agency" period.
  - Contact with a player for the limited purpose of participating as a guest player for any USYSA sanctioned tournament with prior notice to the player's Club coach.
  - Contact initiated by the player, the player's parents or legal guardians.
  - Advertising or public relations of a general, indirect nature.
  - Non-sanctioned soccer activities, including indoor soccer teams or formation and coaching of special tournament teams (i.e. 3v3, etc.).
  - Club sponsored soccer training sessions, open to players without geographic restriction, provided that a copy of the clinic particulars shall be delivered to the GCSA office at least five (5) days prior to the event.
- Illegal recruitment or the employment of any prohibited practice may result in a Team Official being suspended from all GCSA soccer activities for a period as determined by the GCSA Games and Disciplinary Committee. Complainant will file a complaint with the GCSA Games and Disciplinary Committee, who shall render a decision. Either party may appeal that decision as stated in GCSA S.R. Section VII.
